THE FOUNDATION FAITH OF GOD

Outreach '81

first quarter/MARCH

DALLAS FOUNDATION

DALLAS FOUNDATION

A BIG CHEER FROM THE 'BIG D' FOR THE DALLAS FOUNDATION

The relationship between Dallas, the 'Big D', and The Foundation Faith of GOD is one of mutual admiration.

The outreach ministry of The Dallas Foundation reaches right to the heart of the community, extending the Love of Jesus Christ to acutely ill children in Dallas/Fort Worth area hospitals as well as to underprivileged kids in the community at large.

The Crusade of Innocence provides counseling to parents who have suffered the loss of a child or whose child is acutely or terminally ill. The Clown Ministry of the Crusade brightens the lives of hospital-bound kids with entertainment, special events and lots of laughter.

The Foundation Faith Center at 3716 Bowser is a popular Dallas location for people drawn to GOD-centered discussions, activities and Worship. The atmosphere is buoyant and alive with interesting people and conversations every night except Sunday. All are welcome.

While Pansy's mission is to bring joy to tiny faces, tears are never far off. The stoic courage of these little children is irresistible.

Rev. Lucia Smith, as young in spirit as the children she delights through her ministry, is seen here with (L-R) Vanessa, Baren, Cedric, Adam and Johanna. Baren and Cedric were the focus of media attention a short while back after the youngsters witnessed the brutal murder of their parents.

With the help of Rev. Lucia's attentive care and by the Grace of GOD, the boys, under the care of their grandmother, are beginning new lives.

DALLAS FOUNDATION

Rev. Jason Smith, Director of The Dallas Foundation is a fine preacher and teacher. He is also a well-known speaker at Southern Methodist University. His many talents include those of a gifted artist, and he has painted a beautiful mural for the children's section at Parkland Memorial Hospital.

The Foundation Center at 3716 Bowser is a popular Dallas gathering place.

Sister Hannah Perchuk leads the singing at a recent Lord's Day Celebration.

Irish Setter 'Scarlet' was taken in by Rev. Lucia Smith and presto, she had a litter of 9 puppies! All the pups have been placed with loving households.

AROUND THE FOUNDATION

ANIMALS: The Lord has directed us to focus as much public attention as possible on the plight of His innocent creatures in a world grown insensitive to anything beyond man's immediate concerns.

Animals are routinely treated like disposable machines in agriculture; they are subjected to unimaginable tortures in medical and industrial research, as well as humiliation and abuse in blood and gaming sports. If you feel moved to help the animals, contact The Foundation nearest you.

DENVER

The New Covenant Crusade is a beehive of exciting people and events. New activities, media and an expanded ministry to The Lord's animals have been added to an already full agenda.

On Sunday, March 29, 'Bless the Beasts', an event focusing on the dilemma of animals in the world today, features guest speakers from various humane organizations. The program is being organized by Rev. Anthony Brennan. As part of the campaign to inform people about animals and their rights, Rev. Cyrus Daniel was the guest recently, along with anti-vivisection activist Pat Chrisco, on Denver's KCFR radio.

'Wings of Praise', under the directorship of Rev. Anne Daniel, is attracting more and more attention from the good citizens of Denver. The ministry is part of The Foundation-wide Ministry of Angels and is tuning lots of folks into the fact of GOD's Spiritual Kingdom and the wonderful relationship people can have with Angels.

LAS VEGAS

Very few people make their fortune in Las Vegas, but many thousands lose everything, including their self respect in the gambling capital of America.

Gambling, prostitution, alcohol, drugs and suicide are matter of fact realities in Las Vegas. Rev. Diana Asher and Rev. Maia Astor-Drayton extend counseling and The Lord's healing love to people in such circumstances on a regular basis. The work of the ministry requires courage, devotion and commitment to operate in the midst of America's official center for lust, greed and material madness.

Our congratulations to them and to their volunteers and our thanks to the residents and visitors to Las Vegas who so generously support the work of The Las Vegas Foundation.

JEWISH CRUSADE FOR JESUS

Rev. Michael Mountain, Director of The Jewish Crusade for Jesus, is also a leader in The Foundation Faith's campaign to protect GOD's creatures from the abuses of mankind.

Rev. Mountain recently testified before an Arizona State legislative hearing to ban the cruel sport of cock fighting.

His work with animals is moving and compelling. He works tirelessly for the protection of the innocents. The residence of the ministry is virtually an animal shelter in itself, while the literature and media outreach communicates the urgency, for the sake of man and animal, for people to awaken to our responsibilities towards the rest of GOD's Creation.

ATLANTA

Atlanta Foundation Director, Rev. Raphael de Peyer, and Rev. John Christopher are both eloquent spokesmen for the cause of animals.

A quote from the latest Atlanta Foundation Newsletter:

"GOD created the animals too. He made them different from us: in mental capacity, in mechanical skills, and in the engines of death, we humans have the edge. But they are innocent, sensitive and often very beautiful ... Vivisection is the cutting of, or experimenting upon, a living animal. It is a terrible crime, an appalling abuse of power."

NEW ORLEANS

The Divine Grace Ministries shelter, 'The House of The Dove', is playing an ever more active role in answer to the city of New Orleans' need for help in dealing with the problems of individuals and families in crisis. To more effectively carry out this ministry of compassion and healing which The Lord has given them, Rev. Hope White, Rev. Simon Moor and Rev. Abigail Johns have initiated a building by building renovation of The Divine Grace Ministries' complex in the city's Lower Garden District.

The beauty, warmth and innocence of GOD's creatures, as portrayed in photos, posters and art is the theme of much of their decorating plans.

"To give," as Rev. Moor puts it, "people who have been desensitized and brutalized by a harsh world, a vision of the gentleness and compassion of GOD through the beauty of His natural creation. At the same time, we aim to heal people's often inhumane attitudes toward animals."

TORONTO

The Canadian Headquarters of The Foundation Faith of GOD is the base of operation of The Ministry of Miracles under the leadership of Rev. Estelle Lehnen, and the ministry is big news in Toronto. With back to back feature articles in The Toronto Star, numerous radio and TV appearances, and followings in upper New York State and Montreal, as well as throughout Ontario, Rev. Lehnen is rapidly gaining the reputation as Canada's authoritative voice on Angels.

Angel Listenings, Guidances and Angel Portraits are available by appointment or by mail. Angel Workshops are held regularly at the Davenport Road Center.

As with all the outreach ministries of the Canadian Headquarters, The Ministry of Miracles is characterized by a certain grace and warmth.

PHILADELPHIA

The Ministry of the Angels of Christ seems to be everywhere in the New York, Philadelphia-Baltimore area.

On February 28th, a new Angelspeak Workshop was held at New York's East/West Center on 3rd Avenue.

On March 28th, a similar Workshop is being held at the Baltimore Hilton in Baltimore. Radio, television and newspaper interviews with Ministry Director, Rev. Magdalen St. Claire and Rev. Enoch Garrett in Harrisburg, Scranton, Wilkes, Barre, Hazelton and Redding are bringing the good news about Angels into virtually every household in northern and eastern Pennsylvania.

In Baltimore, the staff of the 'Evening Magazine' TV show have submitted their special feature on The Ministry of the Angels of Christ for inclusion as a national feature through the 'PM Magazine' syndication. Watch for it.

NEW YORK

The Healing Ministry of The Conquering King went on a grand tour in February that included Pittsburgh, Pa.; Columbus and Cincinnati, Ohio; Nashville, Tenn.; Birmingham, Ala.; New Orleans, La.; and Atlanta, Ga.

Carrying the Healing Message of Jesus Christ, Rev. Sharon St. Joan and Sister Gabrielle Lawrence reached millions of people. Many received the gift of physical healing via their contact with Rev. St. Joan through radio or television.

In Atlanta, Rev. Sharon and Sister Gabrielle led an afternoon workshop on 'Financial Healing' at the beautiful new Foundation Center on Peachtree Road. Many of the attenders were healed in unexpected ways as aches and pains began to disappear.

As the details of the tour would require more space than is available here, on behalf of The Healing Ministry, we extend thanks to all who lent their help and support and to the following TV, radio and newspaper outlets: QUBE in Columbus, The Cincinnati Post, WSM-TV, WSM radio, WRVF-TV and WLAC radio in Nashville, old friend Bill Bolin and WBRC-TV and WDJC radio in Birmingham, WGSO radio in New Orleans, and WKRG radio in Mobile.

GOD bless you all.
